

Domestic Violence Personalised Safety Plan

What is Domestic Violence?

The United Nations defines Domestic Violence as a pattern of behavior in any relationship that is used to gain or maintain power and control over an intimate partner. Abuse is physical, sexual, emotional, economic or psychological actions or threats of actions that influence another person. This includes any behaviors that frighten, intimidate, terrorize, manipulate, hurt, humiliate, blame, injure, or wound someone. Domestic abuse can happen to anyone of any race, age, sexual orientation, religion, or gender. It can occur within a range of relationships including couples who are married, living together or dating. Domestic violence affects people of all socioeconomic backgrounds and education levels. Anyone can be a victim of domestic violence, regardless of age, race, gender, sexual orientation, faith or class.

Victims of domestic abuse may also include a child or other relative, or any other household member. Domestic abuse is typically manifested as a pattern of abusive behavior toward an intimate partner in a dating or family relationship, where the abuser exerts power and control over the victim. Domestic abuse can be mental, physical, economic or sexual in nature. Incidents are rarely isolated, and usually escalate in frequency and severity. Domestic abuse may culminate in serious physical injury or death.

The following steps represent my plan for increasing my safety and preparing in advance for the possibility for further violence. Although I do not have control over my partner's violence, I do have a choice about how to respond to him/her and how to best get myself and my children to safety.

STEP 1: Safety during a violent incident. People cannot always avoid violent incidents. In order to increase safety, battered people may use a variety of strategies.

I can use some of the following strategies:

A. If I decide to leave, I will _____ (Practice how to get out safely. What doors, windows, elevators, stairwells, fire escapes would you use?)

B. I can keep my purse and car keys ready and put them (location) _____

C. I can tell _____ about the violence and request that she or he call the police if she or he hears suspicious noises coming from my house.

D. I can teach my children how to use the telephone to contact the police, the fire department and 000.

E. I will use _____ as my code with my children or my friends so they can call for help.

F. If I have to leave my home, I will go to _____ (Decide this even if you don't think there will be a next time.)

G. I can also teach some of these strategies to some or all of my children.

H. When I expect we're going to have an argument, I'll try to move to a place that is low risk. (Try to avoid arguments in the bathroom, garage, kitchen, near weapons, or in rooms without access to an outside door.)

I. I will use my judgment and intuition. If the situation is very serious, I can give my partner what he/she wants to calm him/her down. I have to protect myself until I/we _____

STEP 2: Safety when preparing to leave. Battered people frequently leave the residence they share with the battering partner. Leaving must be done with a careful plan in order to increase safety. Batterers often strike back when they believe that a battered woman is leaving a relationship.

I can use some or all of the following strategies:

A. I will leave money and an extra set of keys with _____ so I can leave quickly.

B. I will keep copies of important documents or keys at _____

C. I will open a savings account by _____, to increase my independence.

D. Other things I can do to increase my independence include: _____

E. I can keep change for phone calls on me at all times. I understand that if I use my telephone credit card, the following month's phone bill will show my batterer those numbers I called after I left. To keep my phone communications confidential, I must either use coins, or I might ask to use a friend's phone card for a limited time when I first leave.

F. I will check with _____ and _____ to see who would be able to let me stay with them or lend me some money.

G. I can leave extra clothes or money with _____ (domestic violence advocate or friend's name) who has agreed to help me review this plan.
in order to plant to safest way to leave the residence.

H. I will sit down and review my safety plan every _____

I. I will rehearse my escape plan and, as appropriate, practice it with my children.

STEP 3: Safety in my own residence. There are many things that one can do to increase their safety in their own residence. It may be impossible to do everything at once, but safety measures can be added step by step.

A. I can change the locks on my doors and windows as soon as possible.

B. I can replace wooden doors with steel/metal doors.

C. I can install security systems including additional locks, window bars, poles to wedge against doors, an electronic system, etc.

D. I can purchase rope ladders to be used for escape from second floor windows.

E. I can install smoke detectors and fire extinguishers for each floor of my house/apartment.

F. I can install an outside lighting system that activates when a person is close to the house.

G. I will teach my children how to make a collect call to me and _____ (name of to friend, etc.) in the event that my partner takes the children.

I will tell the people who take care of my children which people have permission to pick up my children and that my partner is not permitted to do so. The people I will inform about pick-up permission include:

_____ (name of school)

_____ (name of babysitter)

_____ (name of teacher)

_____ (name of Sunday-school _____ teacher)(name[s] of others)

H. I can inform _____ (neighbour) and _____ (friend) that my partner no longer

STEP 4: Safety with an Order of Protection. Many batterers obey protection orders, but one can never be sure which violent partner will obey and which will violate protective orders. I recognize that I may need to ask the police and the courts to enforce my protective order.

The following are some steps I can take to help the enforcement of my protection order:

- A. I will keep my protection order _____ (location). Always keep it on or near your person. If you change purses, that's the first thing that should go in the new purse.
- B. I will give my protection order to police departments in the community where I work, in those communities where I visit friends or family, and in the community where I live.
- C. There should be county and state registries of protection orders that all police departments can call to confirm a protection order. I can check to make sure that my order is on the registry. The telephone numbers for the county and state registries of protection orders are:
 _____ (country) and _____ (state)
- D. I will inform my employer; my minister, rabbi, etc.; my closest friend; and that I have a protection order in effect.
- E. If my partner destroys my protection order, I can get another copy from the clerk's office.
- F. If the police do not help, I can contact an advocate or an lawyer and file a complaint with the chief of the police department or the sheriff.
- G. If my partner violates the protection order, I can call the police and report the violation, contact.

STEP 5: Safety on the job and in public. Each battered person must decide if and when they will tell others that their partner has battered them and that they may be at continued risk. Friends, family, and coworkers can help to protect them. Each person should carefully consider which people to invite to help secure them safety.

I might do any or all of the following:

- A. I can inform my boss, the security supervisor, and _____ at work.
- B. I can ask _____ to help me screen my telephone calls at work.
- C. When leaving work, I can _____
- D. If I have a problem while driving home, I can _____
- E. If I use public transport, I can _____
- F. I will go to different grocery stores and shopping centres to conduct my business and shop at hours that are different from those I kept when residing with my battering partner.
- G. I can use a different bank and go at hours that are different from those kept when residing with my battering partner.

STEP 6: Safety and drug or alcohol use. Most people in this culture use alcohol. Many use moodaltering drugs. Much of this is legal, although some is not. The legal outcomes of using illegal drugs can be very hard on battered persons, may hurt their relationship with their children, and can put them at a disadvantage in other legal actions with their battering partner. Therefore, one should carefully consider the potential cost of the use of illegal drugs. Beyond this, the use of alcohol or other drugs can reduce a person's awareness and ability to act quickly to protect themselves from their battering partner.

If drug or alcohol use has occurred in my relationship with my battering partner, I can enhance my safety by some or all of the following:

- A. If I am going to use, I can do so in a safe place and with people who understand the risk of violence and are committed to my safety.
- B. If my partner is using, I can _____ and/or _____
- C. To safeguard my children I might _____

STEP 7: Safety and emotional health. The experience of being battered and verbally degraded by partners is usually exhausting and emotionally draining. The process of building a new life takes much courage and incredible energy.

To conserve my emotional energy and resources and to avoid hard emotional times, I can do some of the following:

- A. If I feel down and am returning to a potentially abusive situation, I can _____

- B. When I have to communicate with my partner in person or by telephone, I can _____

- C. I will try to use "I can ..." statements with myself and be assertive with others.
- D. I can tell myself, " _____
"whenever I feel others are trying to control or abuse me.
- E. I can read _____ to help me feel stronger.
- F. I can call _____ and _____ for support.
- G. I can attend workshops and support groups at the domestic violence program or to gain support and strengthen relationships.

STEP 8: Items to take when leaving. When one leaves their partner, it is important to take certain items. Beyond this, one can sometimes give an extra copy of papers and an extra set of clothing to a friend just in case they have to leave quickly.

Money. Even if I never worked, I can take money from jointly held savings and checking accounts. If I do not take this money, he can legally take the money and close the accounts. Items on the following lists with asterisks by them are the most important to take with you. If there is time, the other items might be taken, or stored outside the home. These items might best be placed in one location, so that if we have to leave in a hurry, I can grab them quickly. When I leave, I should take:

Money

- Identification for myself
- My birth certificate
- School and vaccination records
- Cheque book, ATM card
- Key - house, car, office
- Medications
- Centrelink identification and work permits
- Passport(s), divorce papers
